Wrong Not to Risk — Justin Ross — Pastor

1. To all disciples of Jesus: risk is required.

- Sending people out is costly and very risky.
- Taking risks for God is dangerous; but not risking is even more dangerous. — John 12:25-26
- 2 Corinthians 9:10-15

2. The Kingdom of God advances through the risk!

- 1 Samuel 17
- 1 Samuel 14:1-6; 11-15
- Daniel 3
- Esther 4:15-16
- Acts 20:22-24; 2 Corinthians 11:24-28

Without risk the Kingdom of God does not advance.

3. Trust God!

- “You know you are living by faith when what you are doing for God scares you.” ~ C.S. Lewis
- You can never ask too much!

NOTE: Every risk should be done in submission to wise counsel from your local church and under the clear direction of the Scriptures. —Hebrews 13:17; Psalm 119:11

The stakes are sky high! It’s worth the risk!

Notes _____

Don't forget to silence your phones, and if your child becomes unsettled, please step out.
